

Announcement

The David and Jayne Paterson Scholarships Tenable at the University of Oxford

REGULATIONS

For 2014, three scholarships for postgraduate students tenable at the University of Oxford will be awarded under The David and Jayne Paterson Educational Trust (the “Trust”). The following regulations will apply to these scholarships:

1. The scholarships will be known as The David and Jayne Paterson Scholarships, and will be awarded annually.
2. Each scholarship of £10,000 will be tenable for one year and will be paid directly to the University of Oxford towards the total College and University fees.
3. The scholarships will be awarded to Chinese nationals who are resident outside the European Economic Area (EEA), who have completed the majority of their formal education in the People’s Republic of China, and who have graduated from the China University of Political Science and Law (“CUPL”). Applicants will be graduates of not more than four years standing who intend to return to the People’s Republic of China to pursue a career in the legal profession.
4. The scholarships will be awarded to students who will have confirmed places for the MJur Programme at the University of Oxford.
5. If no candidates are judged to be of sufficient merit, no awards will be made.

ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

1. Applications are now invited for the scholarships to be awarded in the academic year 2014/2015.
2. Applicants should apply for a place at the University of Oxford through the normal admission process. Deadline for the MJur Programme will be announced on the University of Oxford website.
3. More information can be obtained from the following websites:

The University of Oxford will write to each applicant announcing the results. At the same time, the Trust will also be informed by the University of Oxford the names of the CUPL candidates who have been accepted by the Faculty of Law to study for the MJur Programme.

4. The selected candidates will receive an Offer Letter from the Trust confirming the award of the Scholarship.
5. The scholarships will be awarded by the Trustees of the David and Jayne Paterson Educational Trust.
