Who wants to learn Chinese at home in your own time? Here is your opportunity:- <http://www.chinese.cn/>

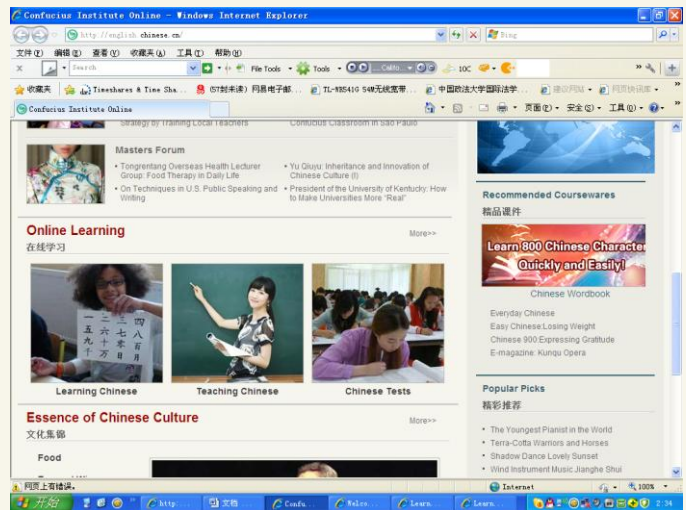

1, Click below on the online learning (the red head) The first is learning Chinese, the second lady Teaching Chinese and the third lady is the exams.

2, The method of learning is very simple. Press on the characters and it will speak the sound which you can then repeat and learn.

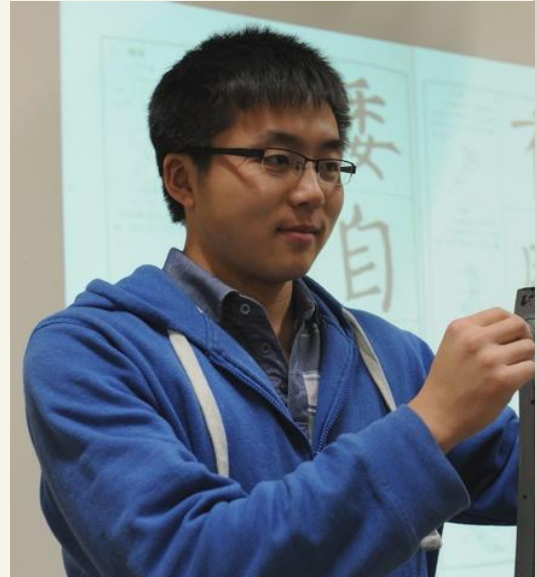

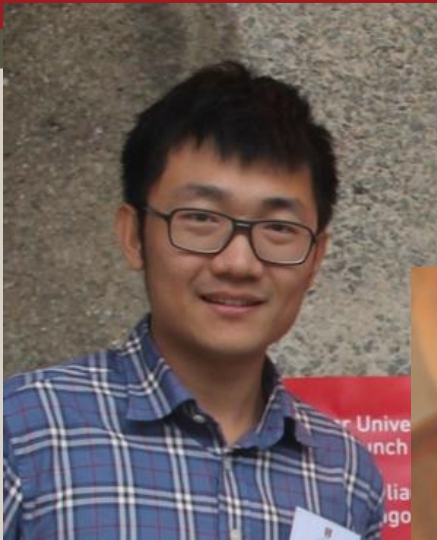

Learning Chinese has many sides, the characters are difficult to learn without roman letters so Pinyin was developed to help with learning. Pin yin is used below to help one understand the sounds better and be able to write them in Pinyin.

3, Click on Pin yin Basics to enter into the following page.

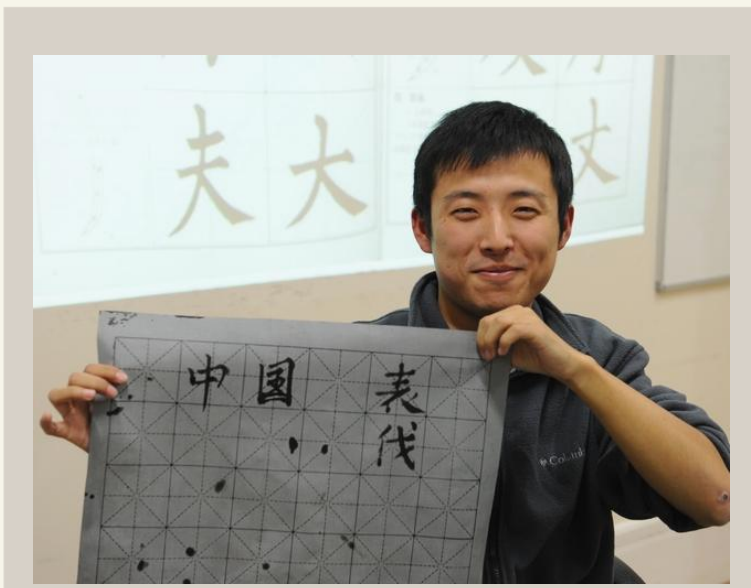

By pressing on the characters one can listen to the words and see the sounds written in Pinyin
