

Chinese-Austrian EU Summer School 2013

Austria    Belgium    France    Germany
Luxemburg    Italy    Netherlands

Since 2002, the Chinese Studies Center in cooperation with Eurasia-Pacific Uninet, has annually organized the Chinese-Austrian EU Summer School for students from Chinese member institutions.

The summer school is designed for Chinese students who want to deepen their knowledge of Europe in general and of Austria in particular. During their stay students have the great opportunity to visit Austria (Salzburg, Vienna and Wattens) as well as European cities like Venice, Amsterdam, Brussels, Paris, Antwerp, Bruges and Luxemburg.

Lectures are given by experts at the European Parliament, the European Commission, the Council of Europe as well as at Austria's Foreign Ministry. The program in Brussels will be organized by the Permanent Representation of Austria to the EU, focusing on issues such as EU-China relations, the work of the European Parliament and the role and functioning of European institutions. Furthermore, the students will take courses at the Vienna University of Business and Economics as well as the University of Salzburg, and the University of Vienna which aim to broaden their view of the European culture and customs.

Participants get information about Austrian history, literature, politics and law as well as economy or music. This range of courses as well as visits at the United Nations, the Musikverein Vienna or at Schloss Schönbrunn and Schloss Hellbrunn guarantee many insights as well as a great experience.

Since 2002, the Chinese Studies Center at the University of Salzburg in cooperation with Eurasia-Pacific Uninet has annually organized the Chinese-Austrian-EU Summer School for students from Chinese member institutions. As in previous years the 12th Chinese-Austrian-EU Summer School will primarily take place in Salzburg, Brussels and Vienna from July 12 to August 8, 2013.

In Brussels, the lectures are given by experts at the European Parliament, the European Commission, the Council of Europe as well as at the Austrian Permanent Representation. Furthermore, the students will be taking courses at the Vienna University of Business and Economics, the University of Vienna and the University of Salzburg aiming at broadening the students' view of the European as well as the Austrian culture and customs. Participants get information about occidental philosophy, Austrian history, literature, politics and law, economy and music. The Chinese-Austrian-EU Summer School Program 2013 is rounded off by visits to the United Nations, the Vienna Musikverein, to the Castle Schönbrunn and the Fortress Hellbrunn.

In addition, there is the option of going to the Czech Republic (Prague) on demand (not included in program fees).
