

Faculty of Law University of Zagreb

Where we are

Why Zagreb?

Fast facts

- Established in 1776 – oldest and biggest law faculty in Croatia
- 3 study programmes – law, social work and public administration
- 29 chairs, 6 institutes, over 9000 students
- 5 beautiful facilities in richly historic urban surroundings
- Library with over 400,000 volumes, international databases
- EU law information centre, Tempus reading room
- Numerous student associations
- Wide range of sports facilities

Exchange programme

- 95 incoming students in 2014/15
- 67 outgoing students in 2014/15
- 70 courses offered in English
- 130 international partnerships
- Over 70 courses in English
- Jean Monnet and Unesco chairs
- Intensive seminars in Dubrovnik
- 5 moot courts and Legal clinic available to incoming students

Coursework outside the classroom

Law library

The Library of the Faculty of Law is a centre for legal research and studies for faculty, students, lawyers, judges, and scholars. It houses not only over 400,000 volumes (listed in the catalogue CROLIST), but also access to numerous international databases (JSTOR, Westlaw, LexisNexis, EBSCO, etc.).

Alumni

- Mirjan Damaška - Sterling Professor Emeritus of Law and Professorial Lecturer in Law at Yale Law School
- Siniša Rodin – Judge of the Court of Justice of the EU
- Ivan Šimonović - UN Assistant Secretary-General for Human Rights
- Branko Hrvatin - President of the Supreme Court of Croatia
- Ksenija Turković – Judge of the European Court of Human Rights
- Jasna Omejec – President of the Constitutional Court of Croatia

Looking for the perfect academic experience?

Find us in Zagreb